

A.J. Wojciak
Principal

A.J. Wojciak is a principal at PSW, where he leads the firm's healthcare practice and advises clients on matters relating to tax and trade, financial services, insurance, retirement services, and energy. Prior to joining PSW, Wojciak was a partner at Capitol Hill Strategies.

Previously, Wojciak worked in-house for the BlueCross BlueShield Association, serving as the senior Democratic lobbyist. Before that he served as senior legislative aide to then-Congressman Earl Pomeroy from North Dakota. In that capacity Wojciak served as the Congressman's principle advisor for health care and energy matters before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Early in his career, Wojciak worked as a Special Assistant at the U.S. Department of the Interior during the Clinton Administration. Performing a variety of duties for the Secretary, he finished his tenure at Interior as a Special Assistant to the Deputy Secretary, managing various issues for the Department.

A native to the Washington, DC area, Wojciak holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Villanova University and is also an alumnus of the George Washington University, where he earned a Master of Arts in Legislative Affairs.
