

ANGELA SMITH
Director of Political Affairs

Angela Smith serves as the Director of Political Affairs for PSW, overseeing the political events program and helping clients with PAC management. She also supports clients on issues relating to energy and the environment, trade, commerce, and appropriations.

Prior to joining PSW, Smith served as Director of Scheduling for Congresswoman Abby Finkenauer, managing an active calendar for the Congresswoman in Washington, D.C. and in Iowa as well as helping with communications and legislative strategy. Before working on Capitol Hill, Smith spent three years as a Tracking and Video Research Manager for American Bridge 21st Century PAC, the largest research, tracking and rapid response organization in the Democratic Party. She also previously worked on various political campaigns in New York and Iowa including for Congressman Tim Bishop.

Smith earned both her B.A. in Interdisciplinary Studies and her M.A. in Political Communication from American University's School of Public Affairs. She is originally from Eastern Long Island and currently resides in Washington, DC.

Contact: asmith@psw-inc.com